

Designing Healthy and Liveable Cities Public Forum

29 November 2018 | Brisbane

Griffith South Bank QCA Lecture Theatre & Gallery, S05_2.04

17:45-20:15

PROGRAM

- | | | |
|-------|-------|--|
| 17:45 | 17:55 | Welcome, Introduction and Presentation Speakers
Chair - Greg Vann, Director Planning at Ethos Urban |
| 17:55 | 18:10 | The built environment and health: an international perspective
Presenter - Professor James (Jim) Sallis, University of California, San Diego/
Australian Catholic University/Active Living Research |
| 18:10 | 18:25 | How liveable is Brisbane? Launch of Brisbane's Liveability Scorecard
Presenter - Professor Billie Giles-Corti, RMIT University |
| 18:25 | 18:40 | The future on transport: 30 year vision and autonomous vehicles
Presenter - Sally A Noonan, Chief Economist, Department of Transport & Main Roads |
| 18:40 | 18:50 | Summary of presentations and presentation panel
Panel Moderator - Greg Vann, Director Planning at Ethos Urban |
| 18:50 | 19:10 | Panel discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Professor Jim Sallis, University of California, San Diego/Australian Catholic University/
Active Living Research ◆ Professor Billie Giles-Corti, RMIT University ◆ Sally A Noonan, Department of Transport & Main Roads ◆ Professor Gavin Turrell, Deakin University ◆ Alastair Leighton, Aecom |
| 19:10 | 19:15 | Wrap up
Chair - Greg Vann, Director Planning at Ethos Urban |
| 19:15 | 20:15 | Networking, snacks and refreshments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Venue & Catering : The Ship Inn ◆ Location : The Ship Inn is located approximately 50 metres from the public lecture venue, down the steps and towards the river |

Australian Government
National Health and Medical Research Council

Queensland
Government

